

The Valhalla Society of Vesterheim
Norwegian-American Museum
celebrates those members and friends
who have made a planned gift
to Vesterheim.

The Valhalla Society derives its name from Norse mythology. Odin, the supreme deity, was considered the mightiest and wisest of all the gods, and given the title of "All-Father." Valhalla was Odin's chief banquet hall, where he received warriors and gave banquets to the gods and heroes. It was a place of feasting and merriment.

To achieve our goals in preserving and interpreting our immigrant ethnic heritage, we invite our members and friends to join the Valhalla Society of Vesterheim. With your generosity, you share the commitment to secure the best of the past for future generations.

Once Vesterheim is notified of your intention to make a planned gift, you become a member of the society. For more information about membership in the Valhalla Society and Vesterheim's planned giving opportunities, please fill out the form below, or call the Development Department at (563) 382-9681.

Planned gifts include:
